Climbing Instructor Training

Where: Camp Loud Thunder & Mississippi Palisades State Park
When: April 7-8, 2017
Cost: $75.00

Troops wanting to do Climbing and Rappelling as part of the unit program MUST have at least one adult who has completed this course training. Climbing activities always have the capacity for accident and injury, so you'll want to be sure the techniques you use are within BSA's guidelines and are SAFE!

This enjoyable training opportunity starts at 7:00 p.m. on Friday evening at Camp Loud Thunder. Please arrive NO LATER THAN 6:30 p.m. to register so we can get the training started on time. Training then moves to the Mississippi Pallisades State Park on Sunday and concludes around 5:00 p.m. at the Pallisades. Participation is required on all three days in order to receive your training card. Breakfast, lunch and dinner are provided on Saturday with breakfast and lunch provided on Sunday.

All participants MUST: Be 16+ years of age and willing and able to engage in fairly vigorous physical activities. Please complete this Registration Form, Training Survey, and send with $75.00 to the Illowa Council Service Center at least one week before the course date. (Scouts under 18 years must be accompanied by an adult.)

You need the following: Completed Annual Medical Health Form - Parts A & B (required), tent (optional), sleeping bag, eating utensils (cup, fork, spoon, plate), personal hygiene items, as well as personal/camping gear. Wear loose-fitting, long clothes to allow ample movement, but clothing should not be baggy. Footwear must be close-toed and sturdy. DRESS FOR THE WEATHER. This program will happen rain or shine unless the Director feels SAFETY is compromised. (All climbing equipment will be supplied; use of your own equipment is at the discretion of the Climbing Director in charge.)
